

Acknowledgments

The information contained in this book did not come easy nor did it come cheap. An enormous amount of knowledge came from a handful of people with over 200 years of combined experience earned from the school of hard knocks.

Though I would love to acknowledge several people by name, the nature of this book obviously prevents me from doing so. However, I feel a responsibility to show my appreciation to them for giving me their time via personal and phone interviews. This includes my friends, brothers, and sisters employed with MGM, Mandalay, Mirage, Harrah's, Coast, Station, and the so-called independent casinos. Below I acknowledge these persons by either their real first names, their children's names, their wife's names, their nicknames, their made-up names, their supervisor's names, etc. Without further adieu, I tip my hat to the following people to whom I am deeply indebted.
